Hello Singletree Residents!

publisher's note

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

2017 marks the first full year INSIDE Singletree has been in print in your neighborhood. Hard to believe how fast the year has passed! As I wrap up this Year in Review to recap the highlights of 2017, it brings me great joy to reflect on how many wonderful people I have met as they have shared their amazing stories with the community. Every month, I am sincerely grateful for the enthusiastic participation exhibited by the residents of Singletree. This Year in Review gives us the opportunity to recall all of the families, kids, pets, athletes and other contributors who have made INSIDE Singletree what it is today.

In addition to recalling the highlights of 2017, this issue captures the energy of the First Annual Singletree Halloween Party, a fun-filled afternoon of pinatas, pumpkin carving, and creative costumes. We also recap the Restaurant Review hosted by Main St. Grill in early November, an off season evening that epitomized neighborhood camaraderie at a longstanding favorite locals' spot.

It goes without saying that INSIDE Singletree would not be possible without the generous support of our business partners. Our Sponsors truly value the opportunity to build relationship within the community and to earn your business. Please keep these businesses first and foremost in your mind when you are in need of their products and services.

With my sincere appreciation for your participation and support, I wish you all a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year ... Here's to 2018!

Luke, Garrett, Gunnar, Rob, Lorien and Barbara Wilson

Ava and Rob Spangler

2017 brought us the opportunity to meet many of our amazing residents in the community. The monthly cover stories of INSIDE Singletree are each filled with history, experience and perspective that are unique and individual, thereby making Singletree the vibrant community it is today. We hope you enjoy this glance back at the feature highlights of the year.

We began the year with the rich biography of Raymond and Faith Bleesz, longtime residents and owners of Brush Creek Dry Goods in Riverwalk for the past eighteen years. In March, we were introduced to Rob and Barbara Wilson, who met in college in Spokane, Washington. Having been in the Vail Valley since 2004, they moved to Singletree two years ago with their children, Gunnar, Garrett, Luke and Lorien. Today, Rob is the Pastor at the Eagle River Presbyterian Church in Avon and Barbara teaches Spanish at Vail Christian High School.

Rob Spangler shared his deep family history in the April issue as well as the path that brought him to live in Singletree with his daughter Ava. In May, we congratulated the 2017 graduates of Singletree: Kass Baker, Sarah Cotton, Colby Lange, Annie Cerovich, Claudette Marie Courtois, Emma Cerovich, Haley DeGraff, Ben Kooiman, Sophia Walder, Lauren Vossler and Chapin Benway. Thank you for sharing your experiences, your achievements and your dreams; we wish you well on your journey!

Alivia, Whitney, Calvin, Beau and Chris Armistead

Singletree Volunteers: Jim Knez, Jeff Koch, Fred Gretsch, and Lee Rimel

Karmen, Conrad, Claire, Hannah and Justin Serbinski

Allison and Greg Decent shared the crazy parental challenges of raising their toddler, Willow, with both wisdom and humor in the June issue. And in July, Christopher and Whitney Armistead told the tale of how, starting in 2005, they became an active family of five with Alivia, Calvin and Beau... plus three dogs, a cat and multiple fish.

"Let's try it for a year..." were the famous last words of Justin and Karmen Serbinski when they left their home in Chicago after 20 years to make the move to the Vail Valley in August 2014 having spent prior winters here over the years. Like many before them, one year has turned into several and together with their kids, Hannah, Claire and Conrad, the Serbinskis are thrilled to call Singletree home.

The hiking and biking trails of Singletree are considered by many residents to be the most favorite feature of the neighborhood; not all residents, however, really understand how the trail system came to be. In September, we recognized the vision and efforts of the many volunteers who have made the trails a reality today, including Lee Rimel, Jim Knez, Fred Koch and Fred Gretsch, Sr.

Willow, Greg and Allie Decent

In October, we celebrated the athletic achievements of Colby Lange as a two-sport national champion in 2015: first by winning the Super G National Championship and shortly thereafter, the Time Trial National Championship at Road Nationals at the age of 16. Having declined an invitation to join the US SKi Team, Colby shared with us his excitement for the road that lies ahead.

Colby Lange

November introduced us to Alex, Robin and Zander Coleman. Alex chose Vail as the place to live at the age of 13. Thereafter raised in the Vail Valley, Alex met Robin on a kayak trip through Alaska in 2006. Who knew they would come to make their home years later in Singletree with their black lab, Susio, and son, Zander?!?

And all too quickly, we come to the end of the year when we meet Brendan, Dana, Stella and Beckett Addis in December. Brendan and Dana represent the many who dream of leaving the Front Range to live in the mountains; they feel very fortunate to have been able to make the move, continue their careers and raise their family atop Singletree.

And there you have it! A quick look back at an incredible year. Enjoy this 2017 Year in Review!

Get to know your neighbors better by featuring your family in the next available issue! Email holly.proctor@n2pub.com to participate!

Electricity Bill Giving You the Chills? GO SOLAR!

"Initially we installed solar to meet our green building code requirements. After receiving our first bill, we realized it took care of a lot more than just that. It's not always easy or economical to go 'green', but after working with Active Energies Solar and seeing the results of our array, we feel great about what we're doing for the environment, and getting our nominal electrical bill every month makes us smile."
-Chris and Stacey Birtwhistle

"We are happy with our solar. We're glad we are reducing our carbon footprint. We have yet to use any electricity from Holy Cross, only contributing back to the grid. We are in a small way making a healthier world for our children and grandchildren. It is our second home which we have provided with solar panels. And we have had excellent service from Active Energy installing and maintaining the roof panels."
-Susie and Leslie Fishman

"Our 16 panels will ROI in eight years and have a warranty for 25 years. They are returning 12.5% per year on the initial investment, which is higher than originally forecasted. Active Energies is a good example of a local business that under-promises and over-delivers."
-Geoffrey Grimmer

First Annual Singletree Halloween Party

INSIDE Singletree and the Singletree Property Owners' Association joined forces to host the First Annual Singletree Halloween Party at the Community Center. Pumpkin carving and decorating, pinatas and creative costumes made for family fun to celebrate Halloween in Singletree! Kids scrambled for tricks and treats spilling from the pinatas while the grown-ups enjoyed treats of their own. Great fun was had by all ages; don't miss it next year!

Singletree's Best Friends: Our Beloved Pets

It's very clear. Singletree residents don't merely live with their pets, they share their home and their life with their pets. For many, their pets are their passion. There are no words necessary to express our love and devotion to our four-legged companions. We look forward to meeting more furry members of the community in 2018!

LET'S GIVE THE TEACHERS A HAND

We all know the many challenges associated with educating our future leaders of the world but what is the most important thing for our children? It is the quality of the teaching staff and the support they receive from administration and parents. According to Governor Hickenlooper in a campaign speech, "Making Colorado synonymous with innovation has to include supporting great teachers, and engaging parents and local communities as partners to improve our schools."

That is exactly what we do at Stone Creek Charter School (SCCS). According to Executive Principal, Jason Mills, "We seek out, hire, train, and support our teachers so that they can be as efficacious as possible. We foster relationships between teachers, parents, school leadership, and members of our community, and work together to ensure every child is engaged, thriving and successful. We are especially proud of our teaching staff, their unique talents and their unwavering commitment to every student."

Claire Lipman is a Singletree resident and first grade teacher at SCCS. She has a Master's Degree in Education in Curriculum and Instruction and has been teaching for 19 years, 9 of which have been at the School. "I was drawn to SCCS for its outstanding reputation to meet every learner's needs in personalized ways. I also was drawn to the tight-knit community of families, teachers, and administration that makes up Stone Creek. Teachers are given autonomy in how to best meet students' different learning styles, while at the same time adhering to Colorado's State Standards. We are encouraged to be creative and think outside of the traditional box," said Lipman. "In addition, parent volunteers are vital to the day to day happenings at Stone Creek. Strong relationships are formed, and lead to both parents and administration supporting teachers not only professionally, but also personally," she added.

SCCS mom of Mason, Wendy Goulding, said, "At Stone Creek Charter School, our son has been blessed with teachers who have devoted a great amount of personal effort and interest to their classroom and students. The teaching staff is open, constructive and always looking to partner with me as a parent to create the best possible learning environment for my son. If it's true that the teaching staff makes a school, Stone Creek Charter is nothing short of incredible!"

How do we measure the success of our teachers and students? We constantly monitor the growth of our students and consistently perform in the top 25% of Colorado schools, including being recognized as a "Performance with Distinction" school by the Charter Schools Institute of Colorado.

We are currently enrolling K-8 for the 2018-2019 school year. Come see first-hand what we're all about at an Open House on January 16th at 6:00 pm at Edwards Gracious Savior Campus or on January 23rd at 6:00 pm at our Gypsum Campus or call us at 970-569-3327 in Edwards or 970-524-4000 in Gypsum to schedule a private tour.

Stone Creek Charter School is a K-8th grade independent, public charter school in Eagle County. Through small class sizes, SCCS fosters an intimate and invested learning environment throughout the Valley with two campuses - Edwards and Gypsum. Our students are supported and challenged to learn and grow in and out of the classroom through fieldwork, service and adventure. For more information see our website www.stonecreekschool.org

restaurant review

Photography by Olga Barron Photography Inc.

Neighborhood Camaraderie Abounds at MAIN ST. GRILL

Main St. Grill has been a longstanding favorite among Singletree residents for years. The casual atmosphere, friendly service and outstanding food have brought owners Chris and Nikki Heiden a loyal following right here in Edwards. That being said, there are also those who have possibly overlooked the go-to familiarity and reliability of the restaurant and may not have visited in some time. Either way, the residents of Singletree gathered on a quiet November evening to taste a wide selection of menu offerings and enjoy an evening of neighborhood camaraderie.

Service is refreshingly prompt and professional at Main St. Grill. The experienced team of servers were quick with drink orders and followed shortly thereafter with appetizers. This evening, the round of starters featured Coconut Shrimp served with a Thai chili dipping sauce and a Chicken Quesadilla with pepper jack and cheddar cheeses, caramelized onions, sour cream, salsa and Pico de Gallo. The simple word “Yum” (a direct quote from Felicia), and even “Yum Yum”, appeared frequently on many tasting sheets for both the shrimp and the quesadilla.

Many remarked on the crispiness of the Coconut Shrimp, including Sherrie Schaeffer who also loved the great sauce pairing. Kris Woodruff remarked that the coconut flavor on the shrimp was delicious, a sentiment echoed by several others as well. Mio Cirkovic rated the shrimp a 5+/10 and then noted, “I changed my mind. 6+/10!” Bev Trout deemed the Coconut Shrimp to be “excellent” with “good presentation” and the Chicken Quesadilla to be “very flavorful”. Linda Wilson is a fan of quesadillas and found the Main St. version to be very good. Nate Free enjoyed the great combo of ingredients in the quesadilla and his wife, Lisa Siegert-Free, endorsed the appetizer by with her remark, “I would order it again.” Need we say more?

Main St. Grill truly outdid themselves with their House Specialty Entrees served family style, allowing every guest the opportunity to taste each dish and demonstrating their outstanding ability to deliver something for everybody. First served was the Grilled Flatiron Steak topped with a choice of blue cheese butter and brown sauce reduction or a Steak Diane (mushroom brandy cream) sauce. Bryan Coffey enjoyed the excellent taste and tender texture of the steak and Lai White and Marv Olson both voted the steak as their favorite dish of the evening.

The T. Louis Pork Ribs, hand rubbed and slow cooked with BBQ sauce, are a signature dish at Main St. Grill. Buzz Finn showed his enthusiasm with 4 hand-drawn stars. Laurel Hendrickson described the melt-in-your-mouth ribs as “soooo tender – the best!” Melanna Marcelot, obviously a returning guest, remarked that the ribs were “excellent as always”. Liz James commented that the fries served with the ribs are excellent; and Carol Calinoff gave those same fries a 5+.

The Chicken Piccata dish is comprised of sautéed chicken breast, tomatoes, and a lemon butter caper sauce over angel hair pasta. Karen Wilhelm was pleasantly surprised to find the Piccata to be excellent and went on to say, “I rarely order chicken but this was very good!” Randy Redding loved the sauce that topped the chicken and pasta. And Eric Johnson pointed out that the dish was “tender and buttery; [the] pasta was the best part”.

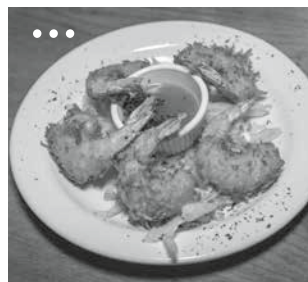

From the sea, the Ahi Tuna entrée is sesame panko crusted, seared rare, and served with Thai sesame vinaigrette, snap peas and rice noted that she loved the rice pilaf served alongside the tuna, as did Linda Wilson with special appreciation for the snow peas.

And last but not least, the Creole Jambalaya is a Louisiana Classic, thick with chicken, Andouille sausage and vegetables, slow cooked and served with rice and Creole sauce. Lisa Siegert-Free considered the jambalaya to be a unique dish with great flavor. While Linda Hyrcowian and Joseph Staron both gave the Jambalaya high marks, it was interesting to note that the dish was a little too spicy for Linda Wilson and just right for Bev Trout, and both Eric Johnson and David Irwin would have enjoyed a little more spice.

pilaf. David Irwin awarded the entrée a 5+ and expressed that it was “amazing in every way.” Robert Wilhelm noted it was very good with “perfect preparation”. The Ahi Tuna proved to be the favorite for Liz James as well and Noel Harris deemed it “Beyond the Best” (a 10 on a scale of 1 – 5). Melanna Marcleot is not a fan of raw fish but Following an incredible array of culinary extravaganza, Main St. Grill topped it off with a house favorite, Bread Pudding, prepared with baked peaches and bread and topped with warm vanilla rum sauce which screams “Share Me!” As “a personal favorite” for Lisa Siegert-Free, everyone had their own words for the infamous dessert: “Superb” for Noel Harris, “Amazing!” for Stephanie Woodruff, and “the Best” for Bryan Coffey. Sherrie Schaefer raved about the fantastic sauce – “so decadent!” and Eric Johnson definitively named the finale “The Topper”.

Beyond the quality of the food and the service, the highlight of the evening for all was spending time and building camaraderie with other Singletree residents. Virtually every guest commented on how much they enjoyed the opportunity to see old friends and meet new people. Regulars and newcomers alike enjoyed the family style service, the quality and variety of the food, and the intimacy of sharing the event with members of the community.

Mio Cirkovic summed up the evening as a “Fun time! Friends and food kept on coming!” Robert Wilhelm put an asterisk next to every dish on the tasting sheet with the note: “I will come back and order these” – the fact that he placed an asterisk next to every item on the tasting sheet is telling indeed. And perhaps David Irwin closed the evening best with his final comment, “Every dinner should be so eclectic for a wonderful experience!”

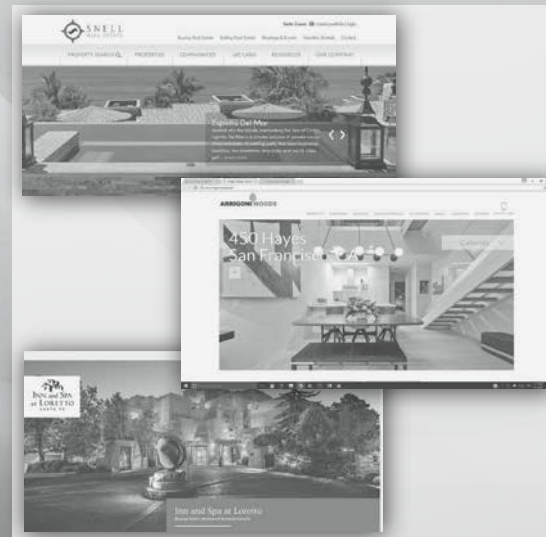

Thank you, Nikki and Chris, for a memorable evening at Main St. Grill. We loved the food and the company, we promise to return, and we look forward to sharing our wonderful experience with friends and neighbors!

Alex brings his strider daily and goes on long bike rides with his friends, Miss Shelley and her dog, Sadie. When you ask him what his favorite part about riding the bike is, he will say: "Going really fast!". Whether it is just riding to the park, or to the other side of town, on street or off-road, Alex enjoys every minute of his riding experience. His favorite part is beating his 12-year-old brother down the trail any day!
